

Daniel Boal#

Daniel takes instructions in a wide range of personal injury and civil matters including fast track trials, Stage 3 and Disposal Hearings, interlocutory hearings, small claims and costs and case management conferences.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Daniel worked as a Dispute Resolution Paralegal for a leading commercial law firm based in Manchester. Here, he handled his own caseload and assisted senior practitioners in a range of complex commercial disputes.

He completed his undergraduate education at Newcastle University, graduating with a First Class degree in Law. During his time at university, Daniel represented Newcastle University at a national level in mooting and won the English Speaking Union-Essex Court Chambers national mooting competition.

Daniel completed the BPTC as part of a Master's degree in law at BPP University. He received two scholarships to study this course. He was graded Outstanding on the BPTC and received a Distinction in his Masters overall.

Daniel commenced pupillage in October 2020 under the supervision of Kane Simons.

Scholarships:

The Honourable Society of the Middle Temple – Godfrey Heilpern Memorial Scholarship

BPP University – Excellence Scholarship

Education

Newcastle University- LLB Law, First Class Honours

BPP University- LLM Law, Distinction

BPP University- Bar Professional Training Course, Outstanding

Professional Memberships

Personal Injuries Bar Association
