

Manchester Business and Property Courts Forum

BPC BITESIZE

Wednesday 19th April 2023 at 5:00PM

*Hybrid Event: Exchange Chambers Manchester &
by Zoom*

In the first of a two part series our expert panel will provide a bite sized view of four cases giving rise to interesting and important issues of law in which they appeared and which reflect the diverse areas of practice of those who appear in the Business & Property Courts in Manchester.

- Lesley Anderson KC of Kings Chambers will consider the scope and extent to which Appellate Courts can and will interfere with primary findings of fact following her recent appearance in the Court of Appeal in Keane v Sargen [2023] EWCA Civ 141
- Richard Chapman KC of 18 St John Street Chambers will consider the significance of dual agency following his appearance in the case of RSW International Limited v Purple Surgical Manufacturing Limited [2022] EWHC 2258 (Comm)
- Andrew Grantham KC of Kings Chambers will consider the scope and extent of a director's personal liability under sections 216 and 217 of the Insolvency Act 1986 following his appearance in the Court of Appeal in the case of PSV 1982 Limited v Langdon [2022] EWCA Civ 1319
- Giles Maynard-Connor KC of Exchange Chambers will consider issues of novelty and joint ownership in the context of confidential information following his recent appearance in Clements v Frisby [2023] 320 (Ch)

To book click here