by Zoom*

In the second of a two part series our expert panel will provide a bite sized view of four cases giving rise to interesting and important issues of law in which they appeared and which reflect the diverse areas of practice of those who appear in the Business & Property Courts in Manchester.

- Mark Harper KC of Kings Chambers will consider the circumstances in which a director will owe fiduciary duties to a shareholder following the case of J T Kelly v B E Baker [2022] EWHC 1879 (Comm)
- Richard Oughton of Cobden House Chambers will consider issues of escheat and proprietary estoppel arising from his appearance in the case of Dixon v Crown Estate [2022] EWHC 3256 (Ch)
- Stephen Connolly of Exchange Chambers will consider the issue of waiver of privilege following the decision in Clements v Frisby [2022] EWHC 3124 (Ch)
- Brad Pomfret of 23 Essex Street, who appeared in the Supreme Court for the Respondent in Barton v Morris [2023] UKSC 3, will consider where the majority's judgment leaves the law of unjust enrichment in relation to payment for services
